This event is exclusive to members of The Wheel. Book your place here. [3]

Course details:

We invite anyone in a leadership and management position from a member organisation of The Wheel to be our guest at this Leadership Community of Interest breakfast on Tuesday, 7 November 2017 from 9.15am - 11.00am (light breakfast & networking from 9.15am; input from 9.30am).

Session Focus

In this highly interactive session participants will:

- learn how to create a 'Thinking Environment';
- discuss the ideas with peer colleagues in an open and enjoyable way;
- practice your ability to listen
- create mini 'Thinking Partnerships'
- consider issues of application in your organisations.

Attendees will leave full of ideas about how to improve their interactions with others!

The session promises to be interactive, you will have the opportunity to learn something about yourself, think about your Team or colleagues, and also discuss with and learn from your peers.

You can look forward to a combination of reflection, peer discussion and some short and enjoyable exercises.

Pre-event material

Slides will be available to the participants after the session.

Session Format

You can look forward to networking opportunities galore at this event, where you will be rubbing shoulders with other leaders and key players from across the community and voluntary sector.

We look forward to welcoming you to another lively and interesting session!

About The Wheel's Community of Interest Initiative

This event is part of a wider initiative of The Wheel which provides facilitated opportunities for the most senior staff, CEO's and board members of communities of interest to come together. Through these Communities The Wheel will keep our members informed, enabling a space for discussion & networking; and to feed into the public policy agenda for The Wheel when relevant.

Feedback from Participants at Catherine's Previous Leadership Events

"Catherine's style allows participants to converse with each other, to learn from experiences and mutual mistakes made and also to disagree with each other in a non-aggressive way. The sessions are thought provoking and they train listening skills and participants learn to become more aware of themselves and other's needs and weaknesses." - H. Kaphengst, Klawitter Theatre Group Ltd

"Well run and on time, will follow up, first time at the event it was good introduction and interaction. Great view of Dublin as well." - V. Keenan, NABCO

"An excellent topic facilitated in an easy and engaging manner. I learned a lot from Catherine's style and it has given me food for thought around my own style of engagement." J. Marken, Scouting Ireland

"I found Catherine's input motivational. People shared freely at our table. It was good to have time out for this network." - B. Mc Donnell, Community Awareness of Drugs (CAD)
