This full-day accredited (CPD 4 hours) workshop will provide an essential examination of the ways in which the legal responsibilities and duties of the Company Secretary & Directors have changed under the Companies Act 2014 and the Charities Act 2009.

To book this workshop (price is €195), go to the bottom of page, opt in or out of the free 6-month membership of the ICSA and click 'Add to Cart'.

Course details:

Irish charities / non-profits are used to finding themselves under intense scrutiny in the public and media eye. However, following the recent enactment of the Companies Act 2014 and Charities Act 2009, it is not only desirable - but is, in fact, imperative that all non-profit leaders / managers / trustees are fully up to speed with the updated mandatory legal responsibilities of Company Secretaries and Directors that both of these acts affected.

It is for this reason that The Wheel, working with the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators (ICSA), has developed this innovative workshop, which has been specifically developed to provide attendees with CPD accredited training on the legal responsibilities & duties of the Company Secretary and Directors of Irish corporate charities.

The full day workshop will explore and examine the ways in which many of those responsibilities have changed or deepened with the introduction of the Companies Act 2014 and the commencement of the Charities Act 2009.
